

Contents - Bulletin 1/2006

EABH survey: Survey on Art and Cultural Activities in Financial Institutions (2-24)

Burning the midnight (25-28)

All that glisters is not gold by Corry van Renselaar

New research (29-50)

The Borromei Bank Research Project by F. Guidi Bruscoli (Università degli Studi di Firenze/ Queen Mary, University of London)/ J.L. Bolton (Queen Mary, University of London)

Barclaycard: the advent of plastic money by Nicholas Webb (Barclay's Group Archives)

"Jewish Philanthropy and Social Development in Europe 1800-1940" by Claire-Amadine Soulié (The Rothschild Archive)

Workshop report (51-64)

Athens 2004 and Vienna 2005. Two Archive Workshops on Corporate Culture. A Look Back by Gabriele Teichmann (Sal. Oppenheim jr. & Cie.)

European Central Banks and Monetary Cooperation after 1945. Central Banks Workshop. Bank for International Settlements. Basel, 2 December 2005 by Piet Clement (Bank for International Settlements)/Juan Carlos Martinez Oliva (Banca d'Italia)

South-East Europe Monetary History Network. First General Meeting. 13-14 of April, 2006, Sofia by Kalina Dimitrova (Bulgarian National Bank)

Finance and the "real economy". The 6th Venice Summer School in Finance, Institutions and History 2006

A course for interpreting bank and company accounts and balance sheets in the Modern and Contemporary Ages by Anna Cantaluppi (Compagnia di San Paolo)

Paying a visit to... (65-71)

The (re)shaping of Knowledge: Creating a new Department of Collections and Research in the Money museum in the Netherlands by Christel Schollaardt (Money Museum in Utrecht)

National Bank of Greece Historical Archives OPEN DOORS by Maria Lebessi (NBG)

EABH noticeboard (72-80)

Changes within the EABH Boards

Forthcoming events

Lisbon Workshops

Lisbon Conference The State and Financial Services: Regulation, Ownership and Deregulation

New Members

Corporate Members

Sveriges Riksbank

Individual Members

Adrian Tschoegl

Catherine Eagleton

Financial History Review Volume 13, Issue 01 April 2006

The San Francisco Earthquake of 1906: Urban Reconstruction, Insurance, and Implications for the Future

Non-EABH Announcements and Forthcoming Events

Winners of the Prize Competition for Research on the History of Banking and Finance Announced

Book Releases

Forthcoming Publications

Archives and Corporate Culture - Workshops' Proceedings

Stories about people (81-82)

Max Steinthal (1850-1940) - a forgotten banker by Reinhard Frost
(Deutsche Bank)