

Contents - Bulletin 2/2007

EABH survey

Topic: Survey: Then and Now (3-14)

Burning the midnight oil (15-21)

Three essays in 19th century banking and financial history (Trois études en histoire bancaire et financière au XIXe siècle) by Clemens Jobst (Institut d'Études Politiques Paris [Sciences Po])

New research (22-39)

Galata Bankers, and the 1861 Commercial Crisis by Huseyin Al (Turkish Banking Regulation and Supervision Agency)

The Monetary Reform of Peter the Great by L.A. Muravljeva (Financial Academy)

Paying a visit to... (40-56)

Deciphering history by Melanie Aspey (The Rothschild Archive)

1957: Germany's return to the international capital markets by Dr. Martin L. Müller (Deutsche Bank AG)

Posters from the ING collection

The historical destiny of a banking museum: the National Bank of Romania Museum by Mihaela Tone/Nadia Manea

Book trailers (57-58)

Willi Loepfe: Geschäfte in spannungsgeladener Zeit, Finanz- und Handelsbeziehungen zwischen der Schweiz und Deutschland 1923 bis 1946

Swiss Banking Secrecy: Origins, Significance, Myth by Robert U. Vogler
UBS AG

EABH noticeboard (59-68)

Changes in the Boards

New Members

Croatian National Bank

Review of the Summer School for Archivists

Continental and Global Networks of Credit and Capital in Historical Perspective. Maritim Hotel, Frankfurt am Main

Archival Workshop - Archives Access Policy

Joint Colloquium ICCA-EABH Conference: The History of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) in Companies and Banks

Prize for Business History

Non-EABH Announcements and Forthcoming Events

Financial History Review Volume 14, Issue 02 October 2007

EABH Publications

From the Athenian Tetradrachm to the Euro, Athens 2001.

Centres and Peripheries in Banking, Stockholm 2002.

Papal Banking in Renaissance Rome, Benvenuto Olivieri and Paul III, 1534-1549.

Book Releases

Removing the dust (69-70)

Posters from the ING collection